Core solutions and products

Corporate structuring

Hong Kong is known as one of the leading finance centres in the world due to its well established legislation and professional talent in law, accountancy, tax, company secretarial services, finance and banking.

Hong Kong as a jurisdiction has excellent infrastructure, so when it comes to starting a business and trading across borders, Hong Kong is considered an attractive jurisdiction.

The use of a Hong Kong incorporated and tax resident company is an alternative vehicle which could be used in corporate structuring with its requirement for a full company secretarial service, audited accounts and annual tax return filing and would be appropriate for use for both investment and trading purposes.

Our experienced team can assist with implementing corporate structures for you, in accordance with external professional advice.

We provide the following services within our corporate offering:

- > Formation services
- > Full management services including individual and corporate directorships, corporate secretarial support as well as commercial services including banking, general administration and a registered office address
- > Compliance with anti-money laundering regulations and corporate governance
- > FATCA/CRS reporting
- > Accounts preparation and tax compliance

Trusts

Trusts are often set up to protect assets and for succession planning so can be an ideal solution in many circumstances, although it is important that individuals have a trust structure that works for their specific requirements.

Our trust services are tailor-made and can be part of a diversified wealth management plan. We have experience in administering trusts which involve specific and specialised tax matters and are established in conjunction with accompanying tax advice.

Trusts can also be an attractive solution for share sales and for businesses looking to set up incentives for employees. Our team has extensive experience in managing various employee benefit schemes and structures set up as part of a pre-IPO plan.

Although based in Hong Kong, our structuring solutions are international. We have extensive experience in managing trusts created in many jurisdictions outside of our Hong Kong offering including BVI, Cayman Islands, Guernsey and Jersey.

We inspire, we listen, we trust,
we succeed together.
